Mrs. Louis Whitt Writes Entertainingly to her Home Paper.

STROUD, O. T., Oct. 30.—After spending nearly a year in this new State I will write another letter to old Kentucky friends. We are enjoying fine health and have done so since we have been here. The weather is fine. There have been frosts but no snow, as the Eastern States have reported. The cotton crop is being harvested and the yield is large, making from one-half to 1½ bales per acre. The price is good, about $20 a bale. The first cotton sold brought $2.65 per 100 pounds in the seed, and now it sells at $3.40 to $3.50 in the seed and $10 in the lint and it is expected to go to $4 in the seed before a great while. Some fields have been picked over three times, while some have never been touched. Cotton pickers are very scarce; everyone you see is asking for help. The price paid now is $1 to $1.10 per 100, and an expert can pick 400 pounds a day; but I don't think a Kentuckian would ever pick that much. The average picking is about 200 pounds per day.

The great subject now is, where will the capital of the State be? (Some think the Sac & Fox agency, six miles south of Stroud, will be, as there are so many government buildings at that place, and it is very old. There is also a new railroad surveyed from Guthrie to Okmulgee, which passes through the Agency. Every town is trying for the capital. The Agency is a very beautiful place, situated on a hill and can be seen for miles. There are the government school buildings, which are fine and run by the government, and the Indians are forced to send their children as soon as they are large enough.

The Indians are paid off every three months. I have understood that the Sac & Fox and Iowa Indians were the only ones that received their pay there. The Indians used to have dog eatings on Aug. 5, it being a day of celebration just as the 4th of July is with us. But the government has stopped that and they have to substitute something for the dog. They would collect up a lot of dogs (enough to feed the expected crowd on) and would fatten them well before killing. A log heap was fixed, the dogs killed and put on the fire and when the hair was singed well they were taken off, dressed and put back on the fire and roasted brown. Then they were taken off, carved and made ready to eat, of which I suppose all partook; but that is a thing of the past. There are lots of Indians here, but they have their settlements and never bother any one. They are all great people to buy and most of them drink whisky. If the husband and wife go to town and buy a sack of flour or bran, or any other thing, no matter how heavy, the wife always has to shoulder and carry it to the wagon. The warmest summer days you could see the old ones in town with a shawl around them and bare-headed. Some of them dress as the white people and are as decent. They don't follow any thing for an occupation. Just depend on the government money they receive as interest on the land.

There are many Kentucky people here. Davenport, a new town seven miles west of here, is composed principally of Kentuckians. It is only two years old and is building up fast. It is a prohibition town. Three cheers for the Kentuckians for that. There is a prohibition election here this month, trying to get Oklahoma in the prohibition column like Indian Territory. Kansas, the adjoining State, is also prohibition and if Oklahoma should be, it would be a long ways to whisky.

Stroud has improved a great deal since we have been here. Concrete streets have taken the place of the old plank walks and the lake is being dug for the water works and contract has been made for an electric light plant. There have been several new business houses erected and a new church since we have been here, besides many dwellings.

It is astonishing to see the money paid out in one day for cotton in Stroud. One day in particular 240 loads sold at from $30 to $60 a load, and most of the money is either spent with the Stroud merchants or deposited in one of the banks. There are three newspapers here and each seems to do a flourishing business.

I forgot to mention the new canning factory erected last summer and it did its part in consuming the fine fruit, for which Oklahoma is noted. I never saw so much fruit at one time as I saw in every orchard here last summer, and the finest peaches I ever saw were the Elbertas. They are a large, free-stone peach of very fine flavor.

I saw one load of cotton in Stroud this week of 4,400 pounds weight. The bed of the wagon was made of slats and extended out like a hay frame and was drawn by six horses. Main Street was full of cotton wagons, including the "big load" and pictures of them were taken. I suppose it would amuse some of our Kentucky friends to see us in the cotton field with our sacks. They are from 7 to 10 feet long and drag behind you; so your load is always on the ground. A cotton field that has never been picked is exceedingly pretty. Reminds me of large weeds covered with snow. Everybody works here as help is scarce and it takes all hands and the cook to attend a crop of cotton. But you can assure yourself of reaping a harvest. The centipede and tarrantular are still found here. I have seen one of the former and killed one of the latter.

Enclosed please find $1 for our subscription to the I. J. We always feel just like we have received a letter from home when we get it. Wishing all my Kentucky relatives and friends a merry Christmas, I remain a friend to the I. J.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The Baptist church at Burnside will be dedicated Sunday. Rev. O. M. Huey, of Somerset, will preach the dedicatory sermon.

Rev. J. R. Hobbs, who resigned the pastorate of the Baptist church in Mt. Sterling a few weeks ago, has been called to the pastorate of the Calvary Baptist church in Covington.

The protracted meeting at Rose Hill conducted by Rev. Combs, has closed. Twelve were baptized Sunday. Rev. Combs is a splendid talker and is doing much good for the cause of Christ.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

The Christian church will vote next Sunday on calling the present pastor, Eld. L. M. Omer, for another year. As Mr. Omer is very popular with his congregation and is a splendid pastor, we opine he will be called by a big majority.

Rev. Sam P. Jones left an estate estimated at $250,000, consisting largely of properties in Atlanta, Cartersville and other points. Those in a position to speak authoritatively say that for many years, Mr. Jones' income was from $35,000 to $40,000 a year from his evangelical and lecture work.

Rev. T. N. Arnold called at the State Journal office to express his delight that the State is at last to have a "Campbellite" governor, Judge Hager, he says, will be the first member of the Christian church to fill that high office. He also said that Lt. Gov. South Trimble is part "Campbellite."—Frankfort Journal.

In Time of Peace.

In the first months of the Russia-Japan war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation and the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shingled their roofs in dry weather." The virtue of preparation has made history and given to us our greatest men. The individual as well as the nation should be prepared for any emergency. Are you prepared to successfully combat the first cold you take? A cold can be cured much more quickly when treated as soon as it has been contracted and before it has become settled in the system. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds and it should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

"What is that large, new building?" we asked of our guide, indicating a massive structure surrounded by a high stone wall.

"That's the new reformatory," he told us.

"A penal institution?"

"Nope. It's the State spelling reformatory, where they keep the spelling reformers as fast as they can be caught."—Judge.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elnora, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from 12 to 20 times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up all hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50 cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease." Penny's Drug Store.

The suitor wrote: "I pine, I die, For you, oh, apple of my eye!" The maid replied: "Your joke is neat, But this pineapple's not to eat."

Had a Close Call.

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. Stickel, of Milletus, W. Va. Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it." Cures cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

NEWS NOTES.

Gold in paying quantities has been discovered in Estill county. Jacob Blachoff, the Louisville wife murderer, will hang Dec. 7.

Four little ones, with their mother, were suffocated in a tenement-house fire in New York.

A big bank swindle has been unearthed in New Orleans, and five men have been arrested.

Vesuvius is busy again shaking up the surrounding villages, but thus far Naples is not affected.

The men under arrest charged with robbing the bank at Odin, Ill., had money on deposit in two Louisville banks.

There is universal complaint in the business world over the shortage of cars and a consequent inability to make deliveries.

The four-year-old daughter of Sam Jett, of Winchester, Edith M. Jett, was burned to death at her home while burning leaves in the front yard.

A jury has found Mrs. Jennie Anderson, of Youngston, O., guilty of killing her stepdaughter Elsie under peculiarly revolting circumstances.

The three-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Williams, left alone in a room, at Huntington, Tenn., crawled into an open fireplace and was burned to death.

Cities and towns in Indiana are facing a coal famine as the result of an embargo declared against the Big Four by the Evansville and Terre Haute Railroad.

Texas Rangers sent to investigate the murder of a Judge were ambushed by Mexicans. A pitched battle ensued and four of the attacking party were killed.

As a fireman on a Southern railway engine, running near Versailles, was about to throw in a shovelful of coal he discovered a can of blasting powder in the coal.

J. G. Holloway, a fireman on the L. & N., while his train was near Seabree, walked out onto the pilot of the engine and lifted from the track a little girl who would have been struck by the train.

W. J. Bryan, Secretaries Root and Shaw, John G. Carlisle, Senator W. J. Stone and E. H. Harriman will address the trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress, which opens in Kansas City November 20.

Unconscious of their danger until they felt the floors sag beneath their feet, nine men were carried to death in tons of tangled wreckage by the collapse of live stories of a new hotel at Long Beach, Cal.

In revoking the license of the Mutual Life Insurance Company to do business in Kentucky, Insurance Commissioner Prewitt declares that the offense of "lese majeste" does not exist in the land of the free.

The insurance muddle in New York has been still further stirred up by the hearing of a suit brought by a policyholder of the New York Life to restrain the trustees from expending the company's funds in conducting a campaign to elect the administration ticket.

William E. Hinshaw, the Indiana minister, sentenced to life imprisonment for wife murder and paroled by Gov. Durbin, was arrested and placed in jail at Indianapolis on orders from Gov. Hanly. He is charged with breaking up the home of a friend and may be returned to the penitentiary to complete his original sentence.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tacket, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tacket's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me to death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. With the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and my time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Secretary Taft in an interview in Kansas City said that while "certain spots might have fared better" at the recent election, the result as a whole was a Republican victory and, therefore, satisfactory.

Gov. Luke P. Blackburn, whose reputation as a physician and philanthropist is too well known to need further comment, once said "Concentrated Crab Orchard Water is the best aperient known to the medical profession and will cure more diseases than any other remedy I have ever used." Get a bottle of White's Diamond Brand Crab Orchard Water. For sale by all drug gists and country stores.

HUSTONVILLE.

Mrs. Zoe Ellis, of Stanford, is with Miss Aria Wright.

Grant North sold to S. T. Harris 21 1,200-pound cattle at 4c.

Rev. Lander's subject for next Sunday morning is: "A City Without Walls." Evening: "The Approach of Esau." All cordially invited.

Judge R. J. Breckinridge, of Danville, was here Saturday. Misses Mary D. Kennedy, of Stanford, and Hettie Miller, of Garrard, are guests of Miss Cora Goode.

Hon. Charles Montgomery and Pat Whipp, of Liberty, were here on business. Mrs. George Cowan and daughter, Miss Emma, of Dunville, visited Mrs. S. D. Yowell.

A wedding on the 28th is town talk and the contracting parties are West Enders well and favorably known. They propose to surprise their friends. Watch for their names next week.

The policy holders in the General Accident Insurance Co., of Philadelphia, who live in this locality, will be glad to know that the claim of Joe Snow for $40 for partial disability, was promptly paid.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will give an oyster supper at the Weatherford Hotel Friday night, Nov. 30, for the benefit of the church. Everybody come and help a good cause.

J. P. Goode and J. G. Weatherford are spending the week at Dunville fishing. Dr. O. S. Williams and Milton McCormack and Jerry Adams will leave Wednesday on a bird hunting expedition to Casey and Adair counties.

A union prayer meeting will be held in the Christian church next Wednesday evening and will be led by Charles Wheeler, whose subject will be "Christ Before Pilot." Everybody is invited to come and show by their presence their support of the Master's cause.

The rural route carriers of Lincoln county, are requested to meet at Alcorn's Opera House Thanksgiving day, at 1 o'clock for the purpose of forming a county organization and joining the national order. All who will attend, notify R. R. No. 1, Hustonville, at once.

At the last meeting of our city fathers the lid was put on the barber shops and meat markets, to take effect the first Sunday in December. The meat markets will be allowed to stay open until 9 A. M. A heavy fine will be imposed for violation of this ordinance.

On the 21st and 22nd, Prof. J. A. Hemstock, one of the 20th century wonders in mind reading and hypnotism, will hold the boards at Alcorn's Opera House. The press everywhere heralds him as the leader of this mysterious profession. Popular prices; reserved seats at Yowell's.

Mrs. Mary J. Weatherford, who has been quite ill for some months, was the recipient of a box of the most beautiful and fragrant flowers that grow in the South. She being unable to write, desires through the INTERIOR JOURNAL to express her thanks to Mrs. H. F. Waller, of Okala, Miss., for this act of love and affection, which she highly appreciates.

Charles Lutes bought six car loads of 1,450-pound cattle of Wm. Robinson, of Burgin, at 5.10. J. S. Carpenter sold John Johnson 17 1,532-pound cattle at 5½c. D. C. Allen shipped a car of hogs to Cincinnati Saturday, for which he paid 5½c. Fully 250 cattle from the lower counties passed through here Friday and Saturday hunting grass and a court day market.

On Tuesday evening quite a number of society young people were called to the Christian church parsonage. "A wedding" was the word passed out and before the guests had all arrived, to the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march rendered by Miss Edna Camnitz, Mr. A. M. Waimen and Miss Nannie Hancock marched into the parlor and were married by Rev. G. W. Mills in a brief but impressive ceremony. After congratulations the bridal party repaired to the Newtonian Hotel and left next day for their home.

Rev. W. W. Bruce, the beloved pastor of the Presbyterian church here for many years, died Thursday night at his home in Perryville and was buried there at 10:30 Friday morning in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives. He leaves to mourn his loss a devoted wife and five children. None knew him but to love him. May we cherish his memory and emulate his virtues even through the long years of his affliction. Among those who attended his burial from here were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler, Mrs. Arch Frye, Mrs. Sallie Shipman, John A. Blain and others.

HARVEY HELM

of Lincoln county.

We do not say it because the editor of the State Journal is our brother, but because we honestly believe it, that his paper did more to bring about the nomination of Gov. Beckham and Auditor Hager for U. S. Senator and governor, respectively, than any other power. The Journal worked in season and out for those gentlemen and told the truth and nailed the lie, it mattered not who it hurt or from whence it came. The potent power of a home paper is frequently underestimated but Messrs. Beckham and Hager are of the kind who know the power of the press and the first thing they did on their return to Frankfort was to go to the office of the State Journal and thank Editor Walton and his able corps of assistants for their splendid work for them. By the way the State Journal got every candidate it supported and naturally that paper is in pretty high feather just now.

The victory of M. R. Patterson, Democratic nominee for Governor, and the big plurality given Walter P. Brownlow for Congress in the First district marks the passing of H. Clay Evans from the field of Tennessee politics. It was Mr. Evans' second try for the prize. The first time he claimed he was robbed of victory. This time he is buried under a majority of 20,000. In the first race he had the united support of all the Republicans, but this year the friends of Brownlow were either lukewarm or disloyal, and many thousands of them either staid away from the polls or voted for Patterson. The State Committee is now dominated by Evans, but two years hence Brownlow will regain control without an effort, because Evans' friends are thoroughly discouraged, many of the leaders saying they will never make another effort to elect a Republican Governor.

REV. WILLIAM E. HINSHAW, of Indiana, is a living example of the Methodist doctrine of total depravity. Given a life sentence for killing his wife he was granted a parole. Under such condition, if there was anything in him, he would have lived circumspectly so as to have regained public favor, but he did not, and now he is under arrest again by order of the Governor, charged with breaking up the home of a friend, and may be returned to the penitentiary to complete his original sentence. As Hinshaw is a Methodist he may be trying to prove the truth of the tenet of his church.

EDGAR ALBRIGHT, of the Mt. Vernon Signal, makes a wry face at his medicine but finally gets it down. This is what he says of the result of the Senatorial primary: "Beckham it is. If the majority who were counted for him are satisfied, we will have to be. We have not said a word, if it were to do over, we would not say again. Believing in the old adage, stand by a bad bargain as closely as to a good one, we say: Hurrah for Beckham."

THE DANVILLE NEWS is eating crow three times a day now and is getting used to the diet. It said some mighty hard things about Gov. Beckham but we opine it was done in the "heat of passion" and that all that was said was not meant. We are glad to see that the News has placed the democratic ticket at its mast-head and hope that it will try as hard to elect Gov. Beckham now as it did to defeat him for the nomination.

JOHN G. PULLIAM, of the Harrodsburg Herald, is responsible for the following, which the dear reader is not compelled to believe in toto: "A high wayman held up a woman at Oakland, Cal., and finding her purse contained only 25 cents returned it, and after stealing a kiss walked away laughing. She reported to the police that he was a jolly fellow with a pretty face."

POLITICAL.

William R. Hearst has gone to California to recuperate from his arduous gubernatorial campaign.

Political observers believe that Senator Smoot will be left to occupy his seat in the Senate undisturbed.

The election returns in Tennessee indicate that at least about 75,000 white voters neglected to go to the polls.

William J. Bryan, reviewing the results of Tuesday's election, sees hope in the situation and says there is a trend toward Democracy.

Harry B. Wolf, who will represent a Baltimore district in Congress, will be the youngest member of the Lower House. He is only 26 years old.

Robert C. Broadus has been appointed postmaster at Buckeye, Garrard Co. Perry Belmont has resigned from the New York Democratic State Committee.

No new Kentucky postmasters will be appointed until the President returns from Panama.

The Government Printing Office turned out 5,000,000 copies of congressional speeches for use during the campaign.

District Attorney Jerome advises Hearst to abandon his radical ideas and "be good" hereafter, and says that if he does, his past offenses will be forgiven.

Representative Burton, of Ohio, chairman of the Rivers and Harbors Committee of the House, has called a meeting of the committee to be held on November 29.

At a political conference, held at the White House just before the President's departure for Panama, the Chief Executive reiterated his determination not to become a candidate for another term.

A ripple was caused at the Capitol by the action of Representative Pollard, of Nebraska, in turning back to the Sergeant-at-Arms of House $1,865 of back salary to which he thought he wasn't entitled.

Thirty-four citizens of Fulton have made charges of fraud against election officers in one precinct in that city, alleging that although each cast his vote for N. B. Hays, in the Democratic primary, only eight votes were counted for him in that precinct.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Logan Brown, aged 70, is dead in the Glades section of Rockcastle.

Marshall Boyce, a Harrodsburg saloonist, has taken the bankrupt law.

Central University defeated St. Mary's College 51 to 0 at foot ball at Danville Saturday.

Mrs. Theresa Gill Worthington, widow of Dr. C. T. Worthington, is dead at her home in Boyle.

Tandy C. Lanter, a young farmer of Madison county, was arrested on a warrant charging betrayal. The charge was brought by Miss Jessie King, 16 years of age. Miss King is the daughter of E. A. King.

The Mt. Morgan Coal Co.'s mines and properties near Williamsburg, have been sold to W. T. Underwood and associates, of Birmingham, Ala. It is understood that the price paid was something over $100,000. This has been one of the most successful mines on the Jellico seam, there being a constant demand for the coal.

While shooting at a dog, as he thought remote of passers by at his home on West Main street, Clay Shackelford accidentally shot and slightly wounded Miss Mary Little who was driving by with Mrs. John Gibson. The ball, which was of large caliber, was about spent, and made we are glad to say, only a flesh wound, which is not at all serious.—Richmond Register.

Work on the fourth story of the Newtonian Hotel is under progress, with a big force of workmen. Laying of brick will begin Monday, and within a few weeks the fourth story will be enclosed. An elevator will also be put in. Work on the street railway continues at a rapid rate. Rails have been distributed to the Public Square. A force of about 50 men have the track now laid to the intersection of Monticello and Main street. The power house is also nearing completion and before many days will be ready for use.—Somerset Journal.

Judge W. C. Bell and his charming wife gave a beautiful Halloween dinner to a few of their young married friends Wednesday at six o'clock. It was one of the prettiest entertainments given here for some time. The table was set for 12. The center decoration was a huge jack-o-lantern surrounded by fruit, grain and nuts appropriate to the season, intertwined with smilax. The chandelier was shaped with smilax to simulate a bell, lucious bunches of Malaga grapes suspended by their stems forming a rim and the light globe making the clapper. At each plate were tiny jack-o-lantern souvenirs. When the guests were invited into the dining room it was in complete darkness except for the lights from the many jack-o-lanterns making everything look weird and fantastic. After the guests were seated at the table the lights were turned on. All the decorations were in red, yellow and green, the flowers being handsome yellow chrysanthemums. There was a delicious eight course menu capped by the ices molded to resemble pumpkins. The bon-bon dishes were small pumpkins with the seed taken out. After dinner cigars were passed to the men. The evening ended very pleasantly with progressive hearts, and the guests were lighted home by the little jack-o-lantern souvenirs.—Harrodsburg Herald.

MATRIMONIAL.

Charles Chatham and Miss Mary Vansant, both of Harrodsburg, will be married Nov. 21.

William Baker, aged 48 years, of Newburg, Ind., is missing. Three weeks ago he married Mrs. Polly Wood, becoming her eighth husband. It is said that they quarreled just before Baker's disappearance. Mrs. Baker is 65 years of age.

At Owensboro Frank Heady, aged 73, and Mrs. Josie Fisher, 46, were made one.

Rev. E. B. Real, aged 81 years, has been enjoined by the County Judge at Rogers, Ark., at instance of relatives from securing a license to marry Mrs. Jane Salisbury, widow aged 51. Relatives allege that the minister is in feeble health and not qualified for marriage.

Nellie Sherrow, the Danville girl who eloped in her mother's clothes with Robert Carrier, resulting in a warrant being sworn out for Carrier on the charge of kidnapping her, was married to Carrier before Sheriff Harbison reached Lexington with the warrant. The couple, being refused a license at Lexington, went to Paris, secured a license and returning were married by Magistrate Oldham.

CORNS CURED.—Corn Exit will positively remove corns in four days. The treatment is simple and pleasant and we absolutely guarantee to refund the money to each and every customer whose corns are not promptly removed with entire satisfaction. Jacks and Jennets, Mules.

Horses.

TUESDAY, NOV. 20,

At my place five miles South of Danville in the Shelby City neighborhood, I will offer at public auction my entire holdings of Jack stock, consisting of 32 Jacks & 34 Jennets.

Also 10 choice Mules and about the same number of Horses at the same time and place. Among the horses to be offered is the handsome young saddle stallion, Reid's Gold Dust, and some excellent brood mares. Poor health compels me to quit the business, which I have been constantly engaged in for the past 20 years. It is not boastful to say that during such a long period I have acquired a high standard of stock which will be profitable as an investment for any buyer. Mules were never known to be so high. Buy a Jack and engage in the leading branch of stock raising. Sale will begin at 10 o'clock. Dinner will be served.

Two Farms For Sale.

I wish to sell privately my farm of 170 acres, 5 miles West of Lancaster on the Lexington pike. It is well improved and has plenty of water and timber. Well fenced and buildings in good repair.
Also an unimproved farm of 100 acres, lying midway between Lancaster and Lexington pikes. Good outland each way. Well fenced. Terms reasonable. T. L. HERING, Markedburg, Ky.

LAND FOR SALE!

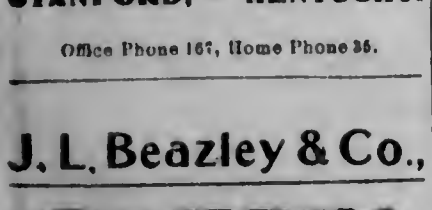

Will sell privately 200 acres of fine farming land, situated one mile from Lancaster, on Lexington pike, about 10 acres in two tracts. About 125 acres in cultivation, rest in grass. All under good fence and has plenty of never-failing water. Dwelling house is good and has all necessary outbuildings. Possession given for seedling purposes this fall, and dwelling first of year. This farm should be seen to be appreciated. Since the city council is enforcing the laws, lands in the vicinity of Lancaster has advanced rapidly, in price, and good property is in great demand. W. FARMER'S DEPARTMENT.

At a sale in Mercer corn sold at $2 shucked in the field.

J. W. Baughman sold to M. J. Murphy a Polled Angus calf for $35.

Frank Martin sold 95 acres of land two miles from Perryville at $74.25.

John A. Wood & Co. bought at Harrodsburg 15 mule colts at $60 and seven big mules at $140.

George D. Robinson sold to Mr. Bohon, who bought his place, his crop of corn at $2 in the crib.

The Dudley Bowman farm of 165 acres near Burgin, was bought by C. M. Saxton, of Illinois, for $18,000.

W. O. Watts has sold his 165-acre farm near Maywood to S. G. W. Roberts, of Pulaski, for $3,270.

G. D. McCollum, of Junction City, had a fine family mare to die from being kicked by another horse.

The corn crop in Hardin county, which had such bright prospects during the summer and early fall, has been cut short by heavy and frequent rains.

FOR SALE.—40 long yearling steers, weigh 750 to 900 pounds; 32 feeders and sloppers, weigh 800 to 1,200 pounds. See them at Adam Carpenter's. M. J. Hoffman, Moreland, Ky.

The preliminary returns to the Crop Estimating Board of the department of Agriculture, according to a bulletin issued, show the production of corn in 1906 to be 2,881,096,000 bushels.

COURT DAY.—There were probably 1,000 cattle here yesterday and a good many sold. Prices ranged from 2 1/2 to 3 3/4, the latter for choice two-year-olds. The horse and mule market was lively and the demand for them was good.

A fairly good crowd attended the sale of Mr. Silas Anderson and satisfactory prices were realized. His jack, Modoc, was bought by John B. Anderson for $435, seven mares averaged $100, suckling colts $50 to $60, steers $21.25, heifer calves $15.

Bud Dunn has purchased two colts from Dr. W. L. Hockaday for $200 each. One is out of a Chester Dare mare by Rex Peavine, and the other sired by the same out of a King Richard mare. They will be trained and handled by Master Charles Dunn, who won 13 straight blue ribbons this season with Bettie D., whom he sold to C. L. Bailey, of Lexington, for $600.—Richmond Register.

The apple crop in the United States has just been estimated at 36,120,000 barrels. This is 12,255,000 barrels more than the 1905 crop. The estimated crop in New York State is 4,900,000 barrels, or larger by 1,000,000 barrels than the production in any other State. The estimated New York crop equals the crops of Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee combined, and if equally distributed to the people of the States would give half a barrel to each man, woman and child.

Resolutions Of Respect.

CRAB ORCHARD, KY., Nov. 9, 1906.—Whereas our brother, T. M. Estes, has been removed by violent and unnatural means on Nov. 6, 1906, therefore be it resolved

1st. That in his death the lodge has lost an honored, useful and loyal member, his family a kind and indulgent husband and father.

2nd. That we deeply deplore his untimely death and extend to the bereaved family our sincere sympathy.

3rd. That these resolutions be spread on the minutes of this lodge, a copy sent to the family and published in the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

4th. That in respect for his memory the usual badge of mourning be worn for 30 days.

H. L. Wells, W. J. Edmiston, J. T. Roberts, committee.

Hines For Campaign Chairman.

To the shrewd political sagacity of Judge Henry S. Hines, Judge Hager and Governor Beckham owe more for their success in the recent primary than to any other one source. It is known by all parties that Judge Hines was the chief adviser of these gentlemen, and now that the smoke has cleared away, the true Democracy of Kentucky should take off its hat to this stalwart partisan and true Southern gentleman. Had Mr. Hines not withdrawn from the Auditor's race, there would have been no doubt of his election. But in the interest of party harmony, and a desire to sweep away every obstacle that might interfere with his choice in the race for Governor and United States Senator, he gracefully stepped aside and put his own personal ambition behind him. It takes a strong man and a loyal friend to do a thing of this kind. Party nominees on the Democratic State ticket, are already suggesting his name as the proper one for chairman of the Campaign Committee that will lead the fight for Kentucky's Democracy next year. If he can be induced to accept this position of trust and honor, it is believed that he will have no opposition. He should be selected by all means, and by acclamation.—Fulton Dailey Leader.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard. Price 50c.

The fact that liquor is not sold in 82 counties of Kentucky is another illustration of the old boast that Kentuckians make more and drink less whisky than the people of any other State.—Atlanta Journal.

Sells More of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than of All Others Put Together.

Mr. Thos. George, a merchant at Mt. Elgin, Ontario, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada, and I sell as much of it as I do of all other lines I have on my shelves put together. Of the many dozens sold under guarantee I have not had one bottle returned. I can personally recommend this medicine as I have used it myself and given it to my children and always with the best results." For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

Secretary Shaw authorized the statement that he will not buy bonds, refund or increase deposits in national banks unless present conditions materially change.

Croup.

A reliable medicine and one that should always be kept in the home for immediate use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will prevent the attack if given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears. For sale by Stanford Drug Co.
